WEEKEND MASS ATTENDANCE: 514

Receiving Holy Oils

At the beginning of the Holy Thursday liturgy, the holy oils that were blessed by the bishop at the Chrism Mass are processed into the parish church. They are presented to the community with a prayer/explanation by the presider for each one. The oil of the sick for the sacrament of the anointing of the sick, the oil of catechumens for those preparing to celebrate baptism, and the sacred chrism used in the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and holy orders are each presented and reverently placed in a visible location. The procession of the oils may be accompanied by a song of presentation written for the occasion with a sung response by the assembly.

PEACE CORNER TRUST

May you be blessed by the God who knows the places in you that find it HARD TO CHANGE, when what is familiar and comfortable begins to shift in you. May you experience God's understanding gaze and hear the gentle invitation to see your life in new ways and to watch as God works new wonders in you. May you trust God and become whole and responsive. May your journey toward trust light the path of those around you who have become stubborn in their resolve. May the God of TRUST bless you. Sister Maxine Shonk, OP

For women who feel sadness and pain after an abortion, that they may not be afraid to turn to those who are willing to help them, we pray

Parish Mission Statement: Guided by the Holy Spirit, members of Saint Patrick Catholic Church are drawn together as one family:

- To celebrate God our Father through the Sacraments and Worship in Jesus Christ.
- To build community in service to one another as Jesus showed and taught us.
- To proclaim God's love in "ALL" we say and do.

"You must love one another, just as I have loved you" (John 13:34)
