Litany of the Saints

The Litany of the Saints is used during the Liturgy of Baptism section of the Easter Vigil. As the candidates for baptism are processing to the font to be baptized, the Litany of the Saints is sung. The intention is to call upon the saints to be present with us through their prayer and witness. In addition to the names of the saints usually included in the litany, the names of the patron saints of the local parish and of those to be baptized may be included.

PEACE CORNER COURAGE

May God's hand in yours see you through every FEAR. May the onset of fear be your signal to look to God standing close to you. May God's love be your shield and may the whisper of God's "Be not afraid" drown out the clamor of your misgivings and worries. May you know courage and may you, in turn, be encouragement and comfort to all those on your path who are afraid and vulnerable. May the God of COURAGE bless you. Sister Maxine Shonk, OP
