Ave Verum Corpus, Natum de Maria Virgine

What does the banner above the sanctuary say? This is the first line of an ancient Eucharistic text from the 1200's. The translation is, "Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary." This Latin text has been chanted and put to different musical settings throughout the ages. The most famous is Mozart's setting. The choir will be singing this in the near future.

This text is beautiful to meditate on at Mass because it conveys two things. First, it conveys the reality that the Eucharist we receive at Mass is the true Body of Jesus Christ. Secondly, it conveys the reality that Jesus received His Body from His Blessed Mother, Mary. The Eucharist we receive is the same Jesus who was born of Mary.

Here is the full translation of the Latin Text:

Hail, true Body, born
of the Virgin Mary,
having truly suffered, sacrificed
on the cross for mankind,
from whose pierced side
water and blood flowed:
Be for us a foretaste [of the Heavenly banquet]
in the trial of death!

O sweet Jesus, O holy Jesus,
O Jesus, son of Mary,
have mercy on me. Amen.

Thank God for Mother's Love

There is no love, like a mother's love,
no stronger bond on earth...
like the precious bond that comes from God,
to a mother, when she gives birth.

A mother's love is forever strong,
never changing for all time...
and when her children need her most,
a mother's love will shine.

God bless these special mothers,
God bless them every one...
for all the tears and heartache,
and for the special work they've done.

When her days on earth are over,
a mother's love lives on...
through many generations,
with God's blessings on each one.

Be thankful for our mothers,
for they love with a higher love...
from the power God has given,
and the strength from up above. (unknown)

Beacons of Light Update

July 1 is approaching quickly. Beginning that day, Saint Patrick and Saint Mary of the Woods will be joining the four parishes of Champaign County in one family of parishes. That includes Immaculate Conception, North Lewisburg, Saint Mary, Urbana, Saint Michael, Mechanicsburg, and Sacred Heart, St. Paris.

There are no plans at this point to change our Mass schedule at the Logan County parishes. The biggest change our parishioners will notice is that we will have a rotating schedule of priests. In both Logan County and Champaign County, people are used to seeing the same priest every weekend. Going forward, the pastor and parochial vicar (an assistant priest working under the pastor), will alternate between saying Mass in Logan County and Champaign County. Sacramental needs (baptisms, confessions, weddings, funerals, anointings, etc.) will be shared by the two priests.

This arrangement will be a challenge for our priests. It will be important for our parishioners to understand that our priests have the responsibility to cover six parishes, so we appreciate everyone's flexibility in making this work.
